GOD'S BIBLE SCHOOL and MISSIONARY TRAINING HOME

On October 18, 1955, a representative committee of the different classes of each school and their sponsors met in classroom 1 and voted on a PERMANENT name, THE HILLTOP, for the school Annual.

In 1957 a contract was signed with the S. K. Smith Company that we would obtain our 1958, 1959, and 1960 Annual covers in the same design at a discount from their company.

THE WORD OF GOD

The of God is like a
That shines serenely thro' the night,
Its rays will light my weary way
To the realms of a fair, unending day.

The of God is like a
That pierces hearts, thus saith the Lord;
And like a  , weighty strong,
That can break up the rocks of sin and wrong.

The of God is like the
On which the hosts of old were fed;
From heav'n came to fill our need,
Hungry hearts it will satisfy indeed.

The of God is like a
It kindles in our hearts desire
To see its Author face to face
And to know all the fulness of His grace.

Haldor Lillenas

"And he (made)
some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and some teachers."
Eph. 4:11

"As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men."

President

JUDGE ALLEN C. ROUDEBUSH
Business Manager

Just to remind you:

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."—II Tim. 3:16,17.

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."—II Tim. 2:15.

"The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple." —Psa. 119:130.

"Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee."—Psa. 119:11.

Congratulations and may God richly bless you!

President Lloyd R. Day

Congratulations to the class of 1959 as you finish your courses at God's Bible School where you have had, not only the advantages of excellent teachers and stimulating associations, but the rare privilege of attending a school where the Bible and Christian principles are taught.

It is indeed true that most of what we learn, we learn from living; and since you are young you have the best part of your experience ahead.

May you each one prove a blessing to every life you touch, and may you, in turn, enjoy the abundant blessings which always come from true Christian living.

George Mueller on Bible Reading

One of the main sources of power in the life of George Mueller of Bristol, England was his devotion to the Bible. He read it reverently every day and gave the following principles for reading the Bible for personal profit.

1. Read regularly. Read alternately from the Old and New Testaments. Begin at the beginning of each. Mark where you leave off each day. When you have finished each Testament, begin it again.

2. Read prayfully. Seek carefully the help of the Holy Spirit so that He will enlighten you.

3. Read with meditation. Ponder the truth so that it may be applied to your heart. Better read a little and think much than read much and think little.

4. Read with reference to yourself. Never read only with a view to instructing others. Ask yourself, "How does this affect me, my faith, my life, my service?"

5. Read with faith. Not critically, but to discover the revealed Word of God. Rest upon God's promises, warnings and commands as of vital importance.

6. Read to carry into practice. Accept God's Word as being the revelation of His will. He expects us to do as well as to know.

7. Read it to find Christ in the whole Word of God. As He is promised, incarnate, atoning for sin, resurrected, ever living, coming again.

"The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the place held by the Word in our life and thoughts. I solemnly state this from the experience of fifty-four years. The first three years after conversion I neglected the Word of God.

"Since I began to search it diligently the blessing has been wonderful. I have read the Bible through one hundred times, and always with increasing delight. Each time it seems like a new Book to me. Great has been the blessing from consecutive, diligent, daily study. I look upon it as a lost day when I have not had a good time over the Word of God."

THE BIBLE CONTAINS

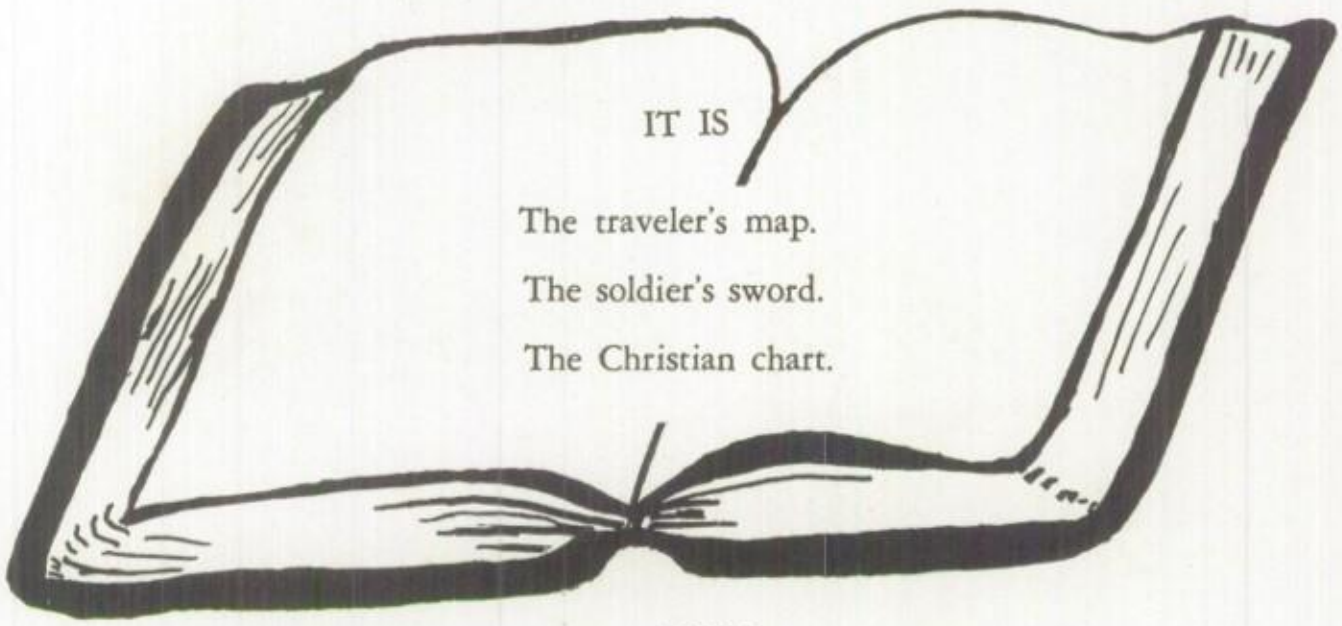
"The mind of God, the state of man, the way of life, the doom of sinners, the happiness of believers.

Read it to be wise.

Believe it to be safe.

Practice it to be holy..

It gives light to direct you, food to support you and comfort to cheer you.



IT IS

The traveler's map.

The soldier's sword.

The Christian chart.

HERE

Paradise is restored; heaven is opened, and the gates of hell described.

CHRIST IS ITS THEME

Our good its design, and Glory of God its end.

IT SHOULD

Fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet.
Read it slowly, frequently, prayerfully.

IT IS

A mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, a river of pleasure, and a garden of flowers.

IT IS

Given us in life; will be open in judgment and remembered forever.

It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor and condemns all who trifle with it."

The 1901 to 1958 Thanksgivings

Martin Wells Knapp, the founder of God's Bible School, caught the vision of feeding underprivileged children while visiting the mission work of a co-laborer, Seth C. Rees, in Chicago. The first Thanksgiving dinner given by God's Bible School for Cincinnati's children was in 1901. The city was divided into sections, and students in groups of four or five went from house to house to invite the children. Five hundred invitations were given out. The turkeys were roasted in a "Brother Martin's Restaurant" downtown, and the rest of the preparation for the "great feast" was done at the school by the students.

Three hundred children enjoyed that first Thanksgiving dinner on the "Hilltop."

In 1958 our student body is many times the size that it was in 1901. Now we include the children of all Greater Cincinnati. To the 58th Thanksgiving Dinner 9,140 were invited and about 6,000 were present to enjoy the marvelous object lessons presented by Rev. Daniel Woodward and the music and singing of special talented students in the tabernacle, and the deliciously prepared food in the dining room.

To feed our invited guests several busy hours were spent in solicitation, fixing the dining room, and preparing the food.

We sliced 1,200 dill pickles
Broke 597 loaves of bread for dressing
Pin-feathered, baked and took from the bone 3,800 pounds of turkey.
Peeled and eyed 2,800 pounds of potatoes
Peeled 180 pounds of onions
Cleaned 5 crates of celery
Filled more than 8,000 "goody bags" with peanuts, candy and oranges.

We hope we were able to touch many hearts. God has said that His word would not return unto Him void, and those that lendeth to the poor lendeth to the Lord.

God's Revivalist

A familiar paper in many Christian homes is God's Revivalist. It is a sixteen-page holiness weekly periodical. It was first established in 1888 by Martin Wells Knapp, the founder of God's Bible School, as "The Revivalist" a four-page publication.

In 1901 the present name "God's Revivalist" was adopted.

Graduates of 1959, as you depart from God's Bible School may you keep in contact with your Alma Mater through God's Revivalist. Subscribe to it, read it, then pass it on to your relatives, friends, and neighbors. Send subscriptions to others. This may be a means of ministering to many whom you could not otherwise reach.

Graduates of 1959

Put U in Al mni!

U should join the Alumni Association—
U should attend annual meetings—
U can interest others—
U need the fresh contacts—
U can obtain first-hand information—
U might bring new students—
U will encourage the rest of us—
U will get your faith challenged—
U will be a witness for Christ—
U must ever pray for your Alma Mater—
"A strong Alumni Association makes a strong Bible School."

Revivals and Camp Meeting at God's Bible School

One of the outstanding features of school life at God's Bible School is the emphasis upon revival. We regularly schedule a revival for early fall, and another for mid-winter. Class work is either suspended or greatly reduced for these few days. Work schedules are rearranged, and everything possible is done to make these revival times sessions of great spiritual emphasis. From year to year these revival periods have been the time when many of our young people have met and faced spiritual problems, and they have found a way whereby those problems could be settled.

This emphasis on revival is a part of our program of stressing spiritual values. We believe that the greatest need of young people is a spiritual need, and that above all else one needs to know that he is right with God. Only when spiritual values are given the prominence that they deserve can other issues of life be adjusted in a truly proper manner.

Our fall revival began Friday night, September 21, and continued through Sunday night, September 21. The engaged speaker for this occasion was Rev. Luther Cantwell, District Superintendent of the Indianapolis District of the Church of the Nazarene. The singing and special music were provided by members of the faculty and students at the school.

From the very first night of the scheduled meeting to the close it was evident that the Spirit was working in the hearts of the young people. Many young people responded to the wooing of the Spirit. There was not a single occasion when the evangelist gave an altar call that there were not seekers at the altar.

Brother Cantwell's preaching was clear and definite, stressing the glorious possibilities of grace through the Lord Jesus Christ, and showing the conditions that must be met to find that grace. We appreciated the old-fashioned type of revival emphasis which he gave.

On Sunday morning, January 25, our Mid-winter Convention opened with Rev. Eldon Martin, pastor of the Dayton Northridge Wesleyan Methodist church, and Rev. Charles Felsburg, pastor of the Madisonville Pilgrim Holiness church, as the evangelists.

Revival spirit broke out in chapel, pre-convention prayer meetings and in high school prayer meeting before the week's meeting began.

God is so good and so merciful to us, we certainly do appreciate His love and blessing. Thank Thee Lord for the glorious plan of salvation.

Friday night, Mary 29, through Sunday night, June 7, will be camp meeting time. Our evangelists are to be Rev. R. G. Flexon, Rev. S. I. Emery, Rev. C. B. Cox, and Brother and Sister Crouse.

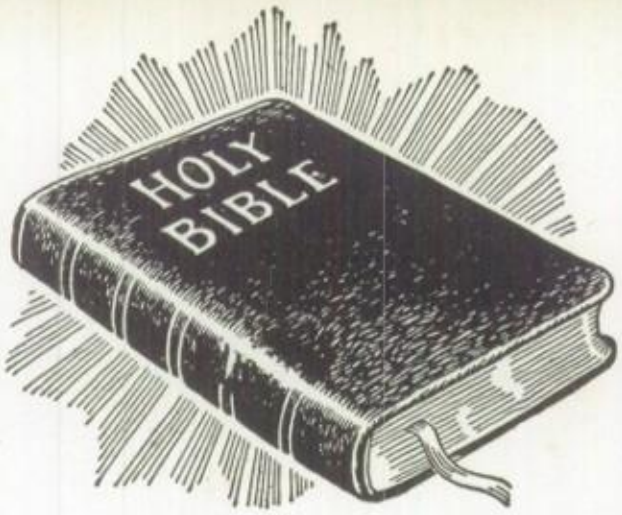
"IF A MAN LOVE ME,
HE WILL KEEP MY WORDS."
JOHN 14:23



His Word Shall Endure

OH, WONDFRFUL, wonderful Word of the Lord!
True wisdom its pages unfold;
And though we may read them a thousand times o'er,
They never, no never, grow old.
Each line hath a treasure, each promise a pearl,
That all if they will may secure;
And we know that when time and the world pass away,
God's Word shall forever endure.

Oh, wonderful, wonderful Word of the Lord!
Our only salvation is there;
It carries conviction down deep in the heart,
And shows us ourselves as we are.
It tells of a Saviour, and points to the Cross,
Where pardon we now may secure;
For we know that when time and the world pass away,
God's Word shall forever endure.

Oh, wonderful, wonderful Word of the Lord!
The hope of our friends in the past:
Its truth where so firmly they anchored their trust,
Through ages eternal shall last.
Oh, wonderful, wonderful Word of the Lord!
Unchanging, abiding and sure;
For we know that when time and the world pass away,
God's Word shall forever endure.
